

Your Contribution Does Make Change

INMED school gardens fed more than 37,000 children in Brazil

Thanks to you, children in South America are receiving healthy food from INMED's school gardens, so they can learn without the gnawing pain of hunger.

Thanks to you, more than 500,000 children and their family members have received life-saving deworming treatment in South America in 2013 as part of INMED's preventive health campaign.

Thanks to you, expectant mothers from remote villages in the Amazon jungle had access to well-equipped health facilities when their babies were born because they could stay in one of INMED's maternity waiting homes before their deliveries approached.

Thanks to you, poor families in the Caribbean and Southern Africa —many with disabled heads of households—are learning to grow vegetables and raise fish with INMED's innovative aquaponic units, ultimately producing enough to feed their family members and sell the surplus for income.

Thanks to you, at-risk kids in South America are increasing their self-esteem while learning to play musical instruments in INMED's music program and building team skills in INMED's youth sports program, enriching their lives in ways their economic circumstances would not have otherwise allowed.
