

May 20, 2017

Contact: Nancy Baker, 540-533-7490, nbaker@inmed.org

INMED Offers Low-Cost Summer Camp Sessions for Elementary-Age Children

Sterling, VA: INMED Partnerships for Children is offering 4 two-week summer camp sessions for children age 5-12 at its Family & Youth Opportunity Center in Sterling from June 12 through August 18. Sessions will feature science projects, arts and crafts, cooking classes and recreation.

Session 1: June 12- June 23 (2:00 pm-6:00 pm)

Session 2: June 26- July 7 (2:00 pm-6:00 pm)

Session 3: July 24-August 4 (2:00 pm-6:00 pm)

Session 4: August 7- August 18 (2:00 pm-6:00 pm)

COST: $100.00 per session/ per child. Scholarships are available.

Please register in person at the Family & Youth Opportunity Center at 21630 Ridgetop Circle, Suite 130, Sterling, VA 20166. Space fills up quickly! For details, contact Erin Lewis at 571-465-5996 or elewis@inmed.org.

INMED Partnerships for Children is an international humanitarian organization that has improved the lives of millions of children and families in 100+ countries for more than 30 years. Headquartered in Sterling, VA, INMED has served low-income communities in Loudoun since 1994 by providing child development and family education, after-school and academic enrichment, skills development and job readiness services, homelessness prevention and intervention programs and intensive case management for families in crisis. For more information about INMED's Family & Youth Opportunity Center in Sterling, VA, visit www.opportunitycenter.us or contact Executive Director Cecilia Capece at 703-729-4951.