NOVEMBER 1

Dinner for a Food Cause

Securing Nutritious Food for Healthy Children and Bright Futures

Registration is Closed

Join us as the Loudoun Area Chefs Collaborative whips up a culinary masterpiece to benefit INMED Partnerships for Children. Chef Christopher Edwards, (The Restaurant at Patowmack Farm), Chef Aaron McCloud (Vintage Restaurant Group), Chef Patrick Dinh (Tuscarora Mill) and Chef Mark Morrocco (Magnolia's at The Mill Restaurant) will prepare an elegant five-course farm-to-table dinner showcasing Loudoun County's best seasonal produce and local wines.

Thursday, December 2, 2010

Silent Auction 6:30pm – 7:30pm

Dinner 7:30pm – 9:30pm

The Restaurant at Patowmack Farm

42461 Lovettsville Road

Lovettsville, Virginia 20180

INMED Partnerships for Children rescues children from the immediate and irreversible harm of disease, hunger, abuse, neglect or violence, and prepares them to shape a brighter future for themselves and the next generation.

INMED will use the proceeds from the event to establish a greenhouse organic gardening system at the Loudoun County Homeless and Transitional Housing Shelters. The greenhouse will provide learning opportunities in gardening and healthy eating, as well as year-round nutritious food for children and their families. Funding from the event will also support INMED's international sustainable agriculture programs,
